

ISAD Utrecht song 2018

I was sitting at my desk one day, typing out an abstract

Atopic dermatitis, new work to enlighten us

But where shall I present it, will the world resent it?

There's only one way to find out, and it's up to me

I shall send it off to the ISAD

Yes I will,

Let it be,

At the ISAD...

So I came to Utrecht all set up with talk and crafted poster

I stood my new data, they all said "come back later"

And when I went to pack my things, I heard a voice that came my way:

"Will you tell me all about your work, today?"

"I want to cite your Figures 1 and 4 if I may"

Yes you may,

You surely may,

I'm pleased to say...

So I came away with some good vibes, my work was not in vain

These ISAD folk are really nice, I'll come back maybe once or twice

I'll write it up for the JID, a nice new paper for you and me,

And all because of the ISAD

And all for such a modest entrance fee

Let it be,

At the ISAD

The place, the place to be,

For you and me.....

Written and composed by Hywel Williams, in tribute to Professor Carla Bruijnzeel-Koomen